(Bobby Darin)

Every night I sit here by my window
A looking at the lonely avenue
A watching people passing, people laughing
I'm a thinkin' about the things we used to do.

I'm thinkin' 'bout things like a walk in the park, things, a kiss in the dark
Things a sailboat ride what about the night we cried
Things like a lover's vows things we don't do now
I'm a thinkin' about the things we used to do.

Every night I hear the jukebox playing
And a heartache of a friend I'm talking to There's not a single sound cause there's nobody else around
It's just me thinking the things we used to do.

I'm thinkin' about things like a walk in the park, things,
a kiss in the dark
Things a sailboat ride what about the night we cried
Things like a lover's vows things we don't do now
I'm a thinkin' about the things we used to do.

I'm thinkin' about things like a walk in the park, things,
a kiss in the dark
Things a sailboat ride what about the night we cried
Things like a lover's vows things we don't do now
I'm a thinkin' about the things we used to do.

Yes, I'm a thinkin' about the things we used to do...
