"Until You Rescued Me"

Stop trying to be my hero, I just need a friend
You act like your on your own TV show
My drama only you can end
I wish you knew to keep your mouth shut
You speak enough for the both of us
Close your mouth and listen

Stop wasting, stop, stop wasting my time
Just listen, just, just listen up
I was doing, I was doing just fine
Until you rescued me
Stop wasting, stop, stop wasting my time
Just listen up, just listen to me
I was doing, I was doing just fine until you rescued me

I'm waiting for a break in the action
Will I ever get your attention?
Do, do, do, do, do, do, do, do
I wish for once you would keep your mouth shut
You speak enough for the both of us
Close your mouth and listen, close your mouth and listen

This is the art of listening
Are you hanging on every word?
This is exactly what I mean when I say silence is the cure
