Roll deep alive, liveO...

Iâ€™m just sitting here, I ainâ€™t saying much I just think
And my eyes donâ€™t move left or right they just blink
I think too deep, and I think too long Plus I think Iâ€™m getting weak cos my thoughts are too strong Iâ€™m just sitting here, I aint saying much I just gaze Iâ€™m looking in to space while my CD plays I gaze quite a lot, in fact I gaze always And if I blaze, then I just gaze always my days

Cos itâ€™s the same old story, shutters, runners, cats and money stacks
And itâ€™s the same old story, ninja bikes, gun fights and scary nights
And itâ€™s the same old story, window tints and gloves for finger prints Yeah itâ€™s the same old story, police investigate around the area Cos it was only yesterday we was playing football in the streets
It was only yesterday none of us could ever come to harm
It was only yesterday life was a touch more sweet Now Iâ€™m sitting here thinking wagwan. (Get me wagwan)

Iâ€™m just sitting here, Iâ€™m just sitting here, Yo..
Iâ€™m just sitting here, yeah Iâ€™m just sitting here, yeah

Iâ€™m just sitting here, I aint saying much I just watch
I really donâ€™t feel like moving so I cotch
I watch all around, I watch every detail
I watch so hard Iâ€™m scared my eyes might fail Iâ€™m just sitting here, I aint saying much I just smile Itâ€™s funny cos I havenâ€™t bust a smile for a while Iâ€™ll smile for a minute, and Iâ€™m smiling for an hour Iâ€™m scared cos itâ€™s sweet, but it could turn sour

Cos itâ€™s the same old story, chung intelligent yaps in hospie flats

And it's the same old story, benefit claims and cheques in false names And it's the same old story, students truent, learn the streets fluent Yeah it's the same old story, strange, there's no sign of positive change Cos it was only yesterday, we was standing firmly on our feet
It was only yesterday, girls were innocent they kept us calm
It was only yesterday, there was less bobbies on the beat Now I'm sitting here thinking wagwan. (Wagwan, wagwan)

I'm just sitting here, I'm just sitting here, Yo..
I'm just sitting here, yeah I'm just sitting here, yeah

I'm just sitting here I aint saying much I'm just vex (shame)
I seen a lot of bullshit, wondering what's next I'm vex at humanity, vex at the earth
I keep getting vex, till I think what's the worth?
I'm just sitting here, I aint saying much I feel to cry I'm sitting here depressed and I don't know why I try to pull myself together, tell myself fix up And I keep myself from bawling but my eyes they erupt

Cos it's the same old story, crazy boys keep getting on my nerves
And it's the same old story, police don't give me no peace
Yeah, it's the same old story, friends slowly drifting from the ends Yeah, it's the same old story, I've sussed, there's nobody I can trust Cos it was only yesterday after school we'd come outside and meet
It was only yesterday, it was all love back then It was only yesterday, every sunny day was a treat Now I'm sitting here thinking wagwan. (wagwan
wagwan)

I'm just sitting here, I'm just sitting here, Yo..
I'm just sitting here, yeah I'm just sitting here, yeah,
I'm just sitting here.
