Hold my hand lets change the sound we both know somethings begun nothing feels that real without you wanna learn so much about you Shining star, i've seen your face everything falls into place nothing else seems to matter

You bring me alive
It feels so lonely
wont you show me
where I need to be
You bring me alive

Feels like the rain drops on my skin you reach me somewhere deep within you make my body come alive
You bring me alive
I whisper things you never knew
I can't believe that tonight I'm here with you
you make my body come alive
you bring me alive

See it burning in my eyes don't want words, don't want no lies they say more then what is spoken promises always get broken

It feels so lonely
wont you show me
where I need to be
You bring me alive

Feels like the rain drops on my skin
you reach me somewhere deep within
you make my body come alive
You bring me alive
I whisper things you never knew
I can't believe that tonight I'm here with you
you make my body come alive

you bring me alive
