(feat. Morandi)

There was a child I used to know
he didn't ever scratch but even so the sun was up, and so was he running like the wind, he was wild and free.

Days are gone, I wanna forget
living like a fool without regrets.
Now I feel I understand
I'll always be a child inside the man.

Chorus:
Will find it from the light
children of the night.
Will find it from the light
making wrong feel right.

There was a time, my dear friend
a time we used to think will never end, sleeping all day, we danced all night
we didn't care if it were wrong or right.

Days are gone, I wanna forget
living like a fool without regrets.
Now I know I'll always be the foolish kid that lives inside of me, me me me me.

Chorus:
Will finding from the light
children of the night.
Will find it from the light
making wrong feel right.
Will find it from the light,
children of the night
Will find it from the light
making wrong feel right.

Will find it from the light.
Will find it from the light.
find it from the light.
