Pray

Turn the nights into a glory day

Pray

Stand up for the rules and pray

We can make it a better place

When we pray for freedom

It doesn't matter what kind of race

When we pray for freedom

So let's live for the promise land

Living in harmony

So let's live with a helping hand

Dreams of a new generation and we pray

What has happened to paradise

In motion or paralyzed

Isolation, immigration

Frustration all over the nation

We've been waisting most of our time

Talking about things and that's no sign

Recognize the advice

It's more than only an exercise

Remember of the world so far away

Where people stay and pray everyday

They have their hopes, they have their chance

To pray for peace and tolerance

Remember of past time paradise

A system without any compromise

Let me say we can find a way

Stand up for the rules and pray

We can make it a better place

When we pray for freedom

It doesn't matter what kind of race

When we pray for freedom

So let's live for the promise land

Living in harmony

So let's live with a helping hand
Dreams of a new generation and we pray

Pray
Pray

What has happened to paradise
Is it turned into a world of sorrow and lies
So many people don't care about rules
Honest people seem to be the fools

Time to wise up, time to rise up
Open your eyes up to the top
Hold a dream against the wind
Close your eyes and let it in

I've heard of a world so far away
Where people stay and pray everyday
They have no god, no sovereign
They pray for their rules and so they win

Remember of past time paradise
To be living in no compromise
Let me say we can find a way
Stand up for the rules and pray

We can make it a better place
When we pray for freedom
It doesn't matter what kind of race
When we pray for freedom

So let's live for the promise land
Living in harmony
So let's live with a helping hand
Dreams of a new generation and we pray

Pray
Pray

We can make it a better place
When we pray for freedom
It doesn't matter what kind of race
When we pray for freedom

So let's live for the promise land
Living in harmony
So let's live with a helping hand
Dreams of a new generation and we pray

Pray
