I'm gonna remember you,
You're gonna remember me,
I'm gonna remember you,
You're gonna remember me

I saw you with your new girl just yesterday
And I feel that I must confess
Even though it kills me to have to say
I'll admit I was impressed

Physically just short of perfection
Gotta commend you on your selection
Though I know I shouldn't be concerned
In the back of my mind can't help but question

Does she rub your feet
When you've had a long day
And scratch your scalp
When you take out your braids
Does she know that you like
2 play PS2
Till 6 in the morning like I do

I can't explain this feeling
I think about it everyday
And EVEN though we've moved on
It gets so hard to walk away
I'm gonna remember you,
Your gonna remember me
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
I'm gonna remember you
Gonna remember me
Walk away
I can't forget how we used to be

My life from day to day
Hoping maybe you'll come back
I know I tell myself
Not to be afraid to move on
But it seems I can't

Though my new man is giving me attention
But it ain't the same as your affection
I know that I should be content
In the back of my mind I can't help but question

Does he kiss me on my forehead
Before we lay
Show up on my doorstep
With a bouquet
Does he call me in the middle of the day
Just to say baby I love you
Like you used to

I can't explain this feeling (I can't explain)
I think about it everyday (everyday)
And even though we've moved on (moved on)
It gets so hard to walk away
I'm gonna remember you,
Your gonna remember me
Walk away (walk away)
Walk away
Walk away
I'm gonna remember you
Your gonna remember me
Walk away
I can't forget how we used to be

So how do I express this feeling
Cause nobody compares to you
And you know that
She'll never love you like I do

I can't explain this feeling (I can't explain)
I think about it everyday (everyday)
And even though we've moved on (moved on)
It gets so hard to walk away
I'm gonna remember you,
Your gonna remember me
Walk away (walk away)
Walk away
Walk away
I'm gonna remember you
Your gonna remember me
Walk away
I can't forget how we used to be

I can't explain this feeling (I can't explain)
I think about it everyday (everyday)
And even though we've moved on (moved on)
It gets so hard to walk away

I'm gonna remember you,
Your gonna remember me
Walk away (walk away)
Walk away
Walk away
I'm gonna remember you
Your gonna remember me
Walk away
I can't forget how we used to be

I'm gonna remember you
Your gonna remember me
I'm gonna remember you
Your gonna remember me
