In the perfect in between
I can touch what you've seen
And the deepest of all horizons
I can reach your eon
Where I'll be my heart can't see so far I need to free Yeah I just want to let me go let me go to Rio

In the perfect in between
Never high and never low
Never ever have time for dreams false starts for sorrow
And if you trust you won't get lost just believe our paths will cross
Where to be is not to be
When the question is how far you wish to see

In the perfect in between
Time slows down all around Too slow to oversee
You run around and round
I can't figure how a small would be
The smallest pieces of eternity
Would it be so warm in me
Losing ground and falling free

In the perfect in between
You'll be fine, I'll will be more than dream
