Everybody break out

I said I'd stand with you forever if you needed me Help, arm in arm, hand over fist and carry you where necessary

Like a fool I thought we'd walk tall forever all as one When the going got tough you stopped pushing and turned to run

I tried so hard, so sad to watch you drown

You turned and pointed fingers at the truest friend you ever had
And I prayed to god you'd find relief
From the things that you made your life sad

We were down forever, together forever all as one But when the time came to step up and do it right, I saw you turn and run

I tried so hard, to help you hold it down
You never helped yourself, so sad to watch you drown
I tried so hard, to help you save your life
You never helped yourself, shut the door and say,
"Goodbye"
Now say, "Goodbye"

You and me, eye to eye, hands tied together, live or die Walk tall forever, all as one, never again, you turned to run

All for none

Everybody break out

You and me, eye to eye, hands tied together, live or
Walk tall forever, all as one, never again, you turned to run
