over the edge, now you've pushed me over the edge fear is the enemy, the destroyer of my fate the one that rips my destiny and strangles me with hate i control my future, fight the negatives inside my head i wage a war to die or to live killing me with misery

skullcrusher
smashing all your hopes and dreams
empty promises, broken lives
in this world everything must die
die

i push through the pain, the only remedy
there is no other alternative the pain is killing me action must be taken inflicted misery
the harder it is, the harder i fight to die or to be free blood red blinds my eyes adrenaline takes my breath my hate like gasoline revenge like crystal death knocked down,

always get back up take life by the balls - and never ever give up the strong survive, the weak will die
king of all kings
i'm still alive
