"Falling"

I wish you had my imagination
So you could look inside of me
And see my deepest fascination
It's driving me mad
I only want you to be

Falling for me,
As I'm falling for you
We could run away
(and) vanish into the blue
And you'll be - Falling for me,
As I'm falling for you
We could run away and
Escape without a clue

I wish you only trust your senses
And let me love you for all time
Just let go of your defences
Even of the ones in the corners of your mind

Falling for me,
As I'm falling for you
We could run away
(and) vanish into the blue
And you'll be - Falling for me,
As I'm falling for you
We could run away and
Escape without a clue
