Didn't know that I could feel this Though I'll never feel this way
I will hold on to this feeling every day

We should never stop this moment
And the feelings will remain
Knowing it will never be the same again
Knowing we will never be the same again

You make me feel alive
When you hold me
In your heart
And I could be
The falling star
in a world you haven't seen
You make me feel alive
When you hold me
In my dreams you could be
the falling star
in a world I haven't seen

When I close my eyes I see you
When I reach out I can feel you
Maybe you'll be true enough to hold my hand
Baby you are reel enough to understand

I should have seen
Where this would go
I know you still
Will be my lead/star
But now you fade
Into my dreams of solitude
