Don't you look behind
You got a long, long way to climb
But I know you'll never fall again
You still have your dreams
Just remember what they mean
If you wanna come alive again

So are you strong enough to fight for what you want?
Do you know that nothing's free you've got to pay the price
So would you stand your ground when walls come falling down?
Cause you know you've always got to make a sacrifice

Sacrifice
Sacrifice

So are you strong enough to fight for what you want?
Do you know that nothing's free you've got to pay the price
So would you stand your ground when walls come falling down?
Cause you know you've always got to make a sacrifice

Don't you sell your soul
Even though heaven is your goal
Cause it's never been that far away
No one is judging you
But you can't disguise the truth
When it's gonna meet you face to face

Sacrifice

So are you strong enough to fight for what you want?
Do you know that nothing's free you've got to pay the price
So would you stand your ground when walls come falling down?
Cause you know you've always got to make a sacrifice

Sacrifice

But this not bring you down to pay the price
Sacrifice
You've always got to make a sacrifice

Sacrifice
