Yeah
Flo brown
Yeah
Tell me what you need baby
Tell me what you need baby

He asked what he had he had to have me
Thought about a d it took a few seconds
To think about the often asked questions
What it take to bring me back to heaven
Where we came from before we changed dun
The non relationin aggravations
Simple conversations arguments and beats
Focused by the mini and studied by the sheep
But I don't play those games and entertain
Physical before the mental
Lust before you enter
What makes me laugh and makes me cry
With very simple things that open up my mind
Put a tingle to my spine make my eyes shine
Bright and wow open like a child
Elegant with style that real mystique
That Speak very little but say the greatest things

That's what I need
That is what it takes
That is what I give you all
You aint got to need it
It is what it is baby
That is what you need
Something that don't lie
That is what I need
You know what im saying

I often wonder why you cant see love
Its colorness with no smell but plenty of buzz
It take you to the threshold and hold you there
Straight to your flesh mode and scold you fair
Out of your wits with out of control fits
Emotional shit like this im speaking it
How it can happen

The force can start you clapping
Make you walk on air
Fall on stairs
Call on prayers
To free you back
Loosen up your grips and lessen up your straps
But you can have that water of the earth
Woman that can burst I'm honey for your thirst
I'm talking about the greatest gift that's known to man
I'm speaking on the strongest ban just understand
Understand within your span what you can have
Take my hand as you imagine

That is what you need
That is what it takes
That is what I give you baby
You aint got to need it
It is what it is
That is what you need
Something like a love saviour
That is what I need

I paint a type of picture of an everlasting mixture
A man and woman sensual depictions
Times I gotta say it I saw it in his eyes
He looked into my soul and took me by surprise
Had me walking around all rise
Learn from the wise
A king that's comprised
Love for me that knows self
And never underestimate the power of my wealth
The pull of the ocean when he in it inner stealth
The fuel of the devotion when he crying out for help
I don't ask him much but give me everything
Give me what you ring feed me what you sing
Said you was a king so lead me to the spring
Summer then the fall I backwalls yall
That speak then don't live that wreak that bullshit
Be grown now show me strength and keep me tense

Love is what you need
Love is what it takes
Love is what I give you baby
You ain't gotta need it
Love is what it is
Love is what you need
Something of a love saviour
Love is what you need
Love is what it takes
Love is what I give you baby
You ain't gotta need it

Love is what it is baby
Love is what you need
Something of a love saviour

Don't say
Love saviour
Love saviour
Love saviour
Love saviour
Love saviour
Love saviour
Just wanna save you baby
