So many times I was alone and couldn't sleep
You left me drowning in the tears of memory
And ever since you've gone I've found it hard to breathe Cause there was so much that your heart just couldn't see
A thousand wasted dreams rolling off my eyes
But times been healing me and I say goodbye!

Chorus

Cause I can breathe again, dream again
I'll be on the road again, like it used to be the other day
Now I feel free again so innocent
Cause someone makes me whole again for sure, I'll find another you!

Could you imagine someone else's by my side
I've been afraid I couldn't keep myself from falling
My heart was always searching for a place to hide
Could not of waited on to bring another day
You're not the only one so hear me when I say
The thoughts of you they just fade away

Chorus

Cause I can breathe again, dream again
I'll be on the road again, like it used to be the other day
Now I feel free again so innocent
Cause someone makes me whole again for sure, I'll
find another you!

Sometimes I see you when I close my eyes ohhhh
You're still apart of my life

Chorus

But I can breathe again, dream again
I'll be on the road again, like it used to be the other day
Now I feel free again so innocent
Cause someone makes me whole again for sure, I'll
find another you!

Ohhhhh I'll find another you
