Ya no me quieres, tienes otros quereres,
fue mi culpa quererte(x3)
(yeah...first verse)
Don't look me in the eyes
I don't want you to see me cry
I had this feeling inside
That we're down to our last good-bye
Now there's no need to think about it
I Didn't wanna take that step
I might say that I forgive you
But I will never forget
I did everything to please you
I left everything behind
I would do anything to see you
Why did you have to do me that way?

Â¿Porque esperaste que me enamorara
Just to tell me that you didn't love me?
Played games with my heart
Leaving it torn apart
Â¿Porque esperaste que me enamorara
Just to tell me that you didn't love me?
What's a man got to do
To wake up next to you
(Ya me quiere vajar Yeah...second verse)
Abrazas a tu inocencia e crecido un poco mas
I have to give you all the credit
You made me a better man
Now there's no need to think about it
Didn't wanna take that step
I might say that I forgive you
But I will never forget
I did everything to please you
I would do anything to see you
Why did you have to do me that way?

Â¿Porque esperaste que me enamorara
Just to tell me that you didn't love me?
Played games with my heart
Leaving it torn apart

¿Porque esperaste que me enamorara
Just to tell me that you didn't love me?
What's a man got to do
To wake up next to you

You said that you weren't the one
That there was someone before
Que fue mi culpa quererte
Si era imposible tenerte
AND now you reckon that you need to come back
Ya no te quiero ver

(yeah, yeah, yeah)

Ya no me quieres, tienes otros quereres,
fue mi culpa quererte(x3)
