Gente dice que
Some people say that true love
No hay amor verdadero
Is mere chance
Pero Dejame decirte que
Well I beg to differ, check it

Chorus
Love is so beautiful
Baby when you find it
You better cherish it, yeah yeah

Well she was praying for something not doubt
He was praying for something
So they were both praying for something
Living a whole coast apart
Never realizing what's on the horizon
He looked in her eyes and (it was a wrap)
It was some old Al Green
Let's stay together as he spoke with a stutter Like - hey how you doin' brother couldn't get his words through
(Gracias poppy) They had the same luggage, name tags and all
Even signaled for the same sky caps on call
Fast forward 40 years through peace and arguments
They still hold hands on that old park bench
Birds serenade they kiss twice
Kids play and thank Christ
For giving them life and abundance of blessings
And for that little mix up at carousel number 7 like

Some two stepper junk right here watch
Just rock with me on this old soul beat
For all my grown folks and grown folks to be Ok so the romance is a metaphor for
That in fact true love is really rooted in more God
So relax your mind and think about the last time

You took a little time to count each blessing one by one
For breath in your lungs and Son risen
For making your lunch in your little kitchen

While the sound system bumps BoogiRoot drum
Maj - I get you focused like a film passion
Because it's what we're all really searching for right
To my family where my peoples at
If your feeling this give me a soul clap
When we choose to discover God quality in others
It's the beautifullest thing, beautifullest thing haa

I wanna thank you for my life so beautiful indeed
