

Birds of Tokyo "Armour For Liars"

Visit "Armour For Liars" on MotoLyrics.com

Driving, we keep on driving, going nowhere
Silent, we keep it silent, no need to share
At all

Lately, things have been changing but nobody cares
Save it, for someone who'll use it, not those with deaf ears

When did you notice something wrong here?
When nobody listens and none of us care
So what are we doing? When will we make a change
Or we lose what we once owned...

Hey kid, run on home again
No world news to sell again

Hate yourself, sorry but you're responsible
I would hate myself, knowing that I'm responsible Flowing blood for wealth and oil, the arms race and their toys
Power suits and power ties, corporate armour built for liars

And when did you notice something wrong here?
When nobody listens and none of us care
What are you doing? When will we make a change
Or we lose what we once owned

Hey kid, run on home again
No world news to sell again...

Visit Birds of Tokyo page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.