So people they close their eyes to see,
But i just listen, They give themselves the third degree,
But i just mess around, Your voice it fill the room where i was standing,
And your truth it held enough for this romance in,

[Chorus:]

Side of every dream, I fade in, I fade out,
Its louder than it seems, I miss this, somehow,

[Verse:]

So people they feel the right to preach, while others
listen,
well hang the off from the highest tree, as tears fall to the ground,
Your voice it fill the room where i was standing,
And your truth it held enough for this romance in,

[Chorus:]

Side of every dream, I fade in, I fade out,
Its louder than it seems, I miss this, somehow,

[Bridge:]

To my surprise its coming on again,
To my surprise its coming on again,

[Verse:]

So people they feel the right to preach, while others
listen,
well hang those fuckers from the highest tree, as tears Your voice it fill the room where i was sleeping,
And your truth it held enough for this romance in,

[Chorus:]

Side of every dream, I fade in, I fade out,
Its louder than it seems, I miss this, somehow,
