Here we are, making jokes about,
The punchline, something for me to talk about.
So who are you, and what am I?

I see your face and it's growing older,
Your cracked smile, who knows what they'll say,
Or what it means, that's how it is.

So, save yourself the last breath.
Save yourself a brand new day,
Are you down here?
Are you with me?

I'll get out, I'll get out of here,
It's just a simple plan,
I thought I made you mine.
I'll get out, I'll get out of here,
It's just a simple thought,
How could I make it work?

I'll get out, I'll get out of here,
It's just a simple plan,
I thought I made you mine.
I'll get out, I'll get out of here.

Here we are, making jokes about,
The front line, something for me to bitch about,
So who are you, and what am I?
I caught a glimpse of a new day breaking,
The sunshine, who blame me for the weather?
With such solitude inside.

So, save yourself the last breath.
Save yourself a brand new day,
Are you down here?
Are you with me?

I'll get out, I'll get out of here,
It's just a simple plan,
I thought I made you mine.
I'll get out, I'll get out of here,

It's just a simple thought,
How could I make it work?

I'll get out, I'll get out of here,
It's just a simple plan,
I thought I made you mine.
I'll get out, I'll get out of here.

We both weave along,
We both weave along,
We both weave along,
We both we belong here,

I'll get out, I'll get out of here,
It's just a simple plan,
I thought I made you mine.
I'll get out, I'll get out of here,
It's just a simple thought,
How could I make it work?

I'll get out, I'll get out of here,
It's just a simple plan,
And you were never mine.
I'll get out, I'll get out of here, I'll..
