And how long has it been Did I forget to lay it down too

Stroke out in a motel
I got my fingernails scratching at the dry wall
I got so much headache
I can't get you out of my mind

In the hardest times
when I had to call on you For just a little when I cry I don't mind if you leave me alone

You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside

And how long have you known that I forgot to lay you down too Too much sun milk and honey is that all that i really got?
I had so much money but not enough sense to make change

In the hardest times
when I had to call on you
For just a little when I cry I don't mind if you leave me when you leave me

You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside
Yeah

How about this Entertaining myself on such a selfish wish

I can't break this way though

I can't be this way though
And I feel like the same
Are you feeling the same?

Hey now
I'm a poor man
I got my fingernails scratching at the dry wall
I got so much headache
I can't get you out of my mind

In the hardest times
when I had to call on you
For just a little
When I cry I don't mind if you leave me when you leave me

You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside

You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the wayside
You caught me by the way
