One last kiss
The few and the far between
Assuming it's my first time
Assuming it ought to be
Send me an I.O.U
I'll send you another chance
To see if you've got my back
To see if I can depend, on you

Wild eyed boy
Your heart still won't settle
Wild eyed boy
How much can you take?

Say my name
If you truly want to see
What matters and whats for real
What you should've meant to me
Sing me a lullaby
Sing me a song of change
Assuming that I don't mind
Assuming that I depend on you

Wild eyed boy
Your heart still won't settle
Wild eyed boy
How much can you take?

They told you your no good to any
Tell yourself your so good to many
Sell your soul, your no good to any
How much can you take?

Wild eyed boy
Your heart still won't settle
Wild eyed boy
How much can you take?
