Eeeee bonics

Ain't nothin' but a fancy word for slang

A language often used when you kick it and hang

There's words like "soda"

I pinched her ass so da

Bitch got mad

Take the word "offer"

Then came her dad

So I quickly got off her

There's a bunch how bout "homade"

I was hungry the so the hoe made me lunch

Yeah pretty soon

There will be books on how to speak it taught in the classroom

But to us it's nothing new (naw)

You hear it on the avenue

Even on the bus, at a barbecue

It's spoken, by people of all ages

I even put it in my rap pages and bust it on stages

But you'll have to excuse me

I'm stepping out this evening

I hope what I've been sayin' you're "believing"

Cause I'll be leaving

In a minute to a black tie affair

I bet they got the bomb weed there

That's ebonics

Hook:

I know ebonic I know ebonics

Do you know ebonics (x2)

[Mista Grimm]

I like to be discrete when on the phone

I don't want the pigs all up in my home

I just call up the homies I'm dry like a bone

Got some vegetable? "aw yeah"

Plug me in with a zone

And if I must say it works rather well

Just keep it on the down low, that mean don't tell

My styles funky and I don't mean the smell
Get yourself a stash box to hide the periphanalala (ya)
Must be a fool if ya haven't learned
That getting jacked, it's not a sexual term
It means you're gonna get robbed
Get yourself a strap
That's a gun, roll with it, on your lap
Don't mess with bummy hoes that try to throw the coochie
Cause the bitch is low budget in ebonics, hootchie
And if ya at the sto' use the word "domain"
Say "Hold the do' man"
There ya go
