[DJ Quik]

It's all I fucking here

"Stay positive, stay humble, stay the way you are"

Tsh, bitch, positive shmositive aint no muthafuckin money in being positive

T'Fuck am I thinkin about?

Shit...

Yeah, just call me the evil stepson of the West Coast

And I'm on one

Mausberg, Suga Free, Black Tone

Now if I broke my leg, tell me would I get carried?

(Huh?)

And would you still buy my records if I got married?

(Would you?)

Or would I make the shots even if I was hurried? (Can I?)

And will I still be remembered even after I'm buried?

(Would I?)

They got me waking up in the mornin and getting loaded

Got me worrying so hard sometimes I'm feeling like my brain bloated

But I'm a break it down, fix it and re-roll it (Break that down)

And let these haters know WE control it

I'm in this for something so different that you couldn't imagine

The style, the flyness and the beautiful hoes (Uh-huh)

The pile, the highness and the pitiful lows (Okay)

That keeps a muthafucka like me up on his toes

No not quite; I want my props on the merit of the hands

That I used to make these beats that bounce around ya
Van

I'm just a little grain of sand under my Dog

The one who keeps me humble, keeps me up and working hard, hear me y'all

It's alright to be in love with yourself

But when she locked up on the pussy, nigga put her on the shelf (Lose her)

Shake that cocaine clean yo system on up (Yeah)

Shed that bullshit and come bounce like us (C'mon)

We trying to have fun from Japan to Comp-tan

Spendin twenty grand, smokin Bud-dhan and nigga you can

But I never went back to something that burned out
And I ain't never did a party I didn't turn out, nigga
Yeah, I'm back and G'd up

[Chorus: Will Hudspeth (DJ Quik)]

Things that a ghetto-nigga used to do
(I'm still doin, and I keep it G'd up)

Places that a ghetto-nigga used to go
(I'm still goin, but I got it G'd up)

Thangs that ghetto-nigga used to see
(I'm still seeing it, but I keeps it G'd up)

Get yo shit right nigga!

I got ten on it

[DJ Quik]

Yeah inflation's a bitch

Just like these people tryin to get me to switch

I aint no damn role model, I can't stop cursin bitch I'm grown

I can say what the fuck I want, get on

I'm a rebel, I gotta keep my shit on this level

Until the day you pat my dirt with a shovel, Hello

Because I'm real wit it, and y'all gotta deal wit it

Put some money back in these ghettos and will quit it

But till then you gotta make me understand

Why it's so hard on a hustling class man

Higher y'all's taxes all my life

Why the fuck I gotta pay y'all just as much as a wife

That's some bullshit, look the tool shed, grab some cool shit

Go on in Will's she'd with your homies

Don't be pouting, keep a cool head (Wait)

How many different directions can you pull me in?

And how many courts of the law can you sue me in?

For sayin "Fuck y'all!"

I'm back and G'd up

[Chorus: Will Hudspeth (DJ Quik)]

Things that a ghetto-nigga used to do
(I'm still doin, but I keeps it G'd up)

Places that a ghetto-nigga used to go
(I'm still goin, but it gotta be G'd up)

Thangs that ghetto-nigga used to see
(I still see it, but still it's G'd up)

You need to: Get yo shit right nigga!

[DJ Quik]

Now I'm just tryin to do my best whether it's work, play or either

And I ain't trying to be no preacher cus they ain't perfect neither

Some of the coldest entertainers that y'all done seen yet

With the skill to rock these niggas and keep these hoes
wet
But there's a method to the madness that we suffer from Making the hardest dudes tremble and even tougher run
It's called the spirit and it's fly, and it's making me bigger
Keeping me from stressing out and puttin hands on niggas
Ain't religion for me unless it's all to the plus Whether in the front of the five-hundred to the back of the bus
I'm tryin to keep these little YGs out the line of the fire
Even if it means I'm a take the hit, leak and expire
Now I see what Top was saying before he left his hole
Devil's shine like glitter, my nigga, but keep your soul
Don't give another nigga control of your gold Share your parties with the world and watch you get swoll, nigga
Yeah, but keep it G'd up
[Chorus: Will Hudspeth (DJ Quik)]
Things that a ghetto-nigga used to do
(I'm still doin, but it gotta be G'd up)
Places that a ghetto-nigga used to go
(I'm still goin, but now I'm G'd up)
Thangs that ghetto-nigga used to see
(I still seein it, but it a gotta be G'd up)
Ya need to: Get yo shit right, nigga!
And you aint gotta gang bang nigga, just keep G'd up
[Chorus: Will Hudspeth (DJ Quik)]
Things that a ghetto-nigga used to do
(I'm still doin, only if it's G'd up)
Places that a ghetto-nigga used to go
(I'm still goin, but it gotta be G'd up)
Thangs that ghetto-nigga used to see
(I still see it, but now I'm G'd up)
