I'm an everyday girl
Who's looking out for me
In a throwaway world
Where the blind can see

Yeah I'm thinking 'bout my situation
And everything I've ever seen
It's not about the world that fails me
You know, it's basic humanity

No wonder why, I sure don't count on nothing
Believe the hype, I'm saying something

A sensation sound
Vibing off as it replays
High on higher ground
And I'll be here always
I'm en everyday girl
Living in a throwaway world

I'm an everyday girl
Take the pressure, takes the pressure off me yeah
Everybody has two faces
Which one's looking at me yeah

I wonder why I sure don't count on nothing
Believe the hype, I'm saying something

A sensation sound
Vibing off as it replays
High on higher ground
And I'll be here always
I'm an everyday girl
Living in a throwaway world

I wonder why I sure don't count on nothing
Believe the hype, I'm saying something
