We met at the break of day
In front of the take-away in Chinatown
A sweet talking charmer, yeah, he broke through my armor
And took what he just found
His kisses were hot but believe it or not
He said: "There's something that I gotta confess
I thought you were Asian but girl you're Caucasian
You better put on your dress"

All you guniang go meet your lat night lover
He's your qinglang till the early morning comes
All you guniang wait till you discover
He ain't no fun, only seven seconds then he's done

So tell me what's wrong with my legs straight and long
And my milky skin
Don't be alarmed it's just some hair on my arm
I love the state I'm in
I'm frail, I'm smart
I'm good, I'm cute
Don't break my little heart

All you guniang go meet your lat night lover
He's your qinglang till the early morning comes
All you guniang wait till you discover
He ain't no fun, only seven seconds then he's done

My frame's a pagoda
My mind's a holy shrine
No I cannot be touched your faux-pas
Cause guys they wait in line
Guys they wait in line

All you guniang go meet your lat night lover
He's your qinglang till the early morning comes
All you guniang wait till you discover
He ain't no fun, only seven seconds then he's done
