"Sleeping pill"

Every hour of the day
Nothing takes my thoughts away from you
Dozing of at work I see
Images of you and me seep through

Time knows there's a wound to heal
Somehow I still need to feel the pain
You're worth to feel the hurt

Running through my veins you're a sleeping pill
You go in and out
Like a fleeting cloud
Once you eased the pain
Now you send me chills
Making sure I cannot do without

Play your music back it brings all your love the lady sings the blues
Play that record on and on
Longing for that same old song to sing with you
Again until the very end

Running through my veins you're a sleeping pill
You go in and out
Like a fleeting cloud
Once you eased the pain
Now you send me chills
Making sure I cannot do without
