"Highest Mountain"

Soft morning light reveals
The remains of yesterday.
The bitter taste it heals
Anytime it will pass away
Walked on by a narrow lane
Passion came across my way
Have no reason to complain
Allowed myself to go astray

Stormy days - they challenge
Everything a man could give, I know
Finally I found the only way to go

[Chorus]

Cause I'm, searching for the highest mountain
Forgot the one I climbed before
It has to be the one and only
That breaks the clouds forevermore
Searching for the highest mountain
My heart's still calling out for more
Nothing like the highest mountain
To touch the sky forevermore

The rocky roads I've walked
Some have turned into dead ends
The funny way I talked
Kind of hard even for best friends
Have to leave this free my brain
Take my chance to run-away
Wanna run right through the rain
Be soaking wet anyway

Stormy days they challenge
Everything a man could give, I know
Finally I found the only way to go

[Chorus]
