You're my angel and you're my star
You're my light that is shinning in the night
I wanna touch you but you're so far
Just come along and I'll give you all my heart

You're my angel and you're my star
You're my light that is shinning in the night
I wanna touch you but you're so far
Just come along and I'll give you all my heart

You're my angel and you're my star
You're my light that is shinning in the night
I wanna touch you but you're so far
Just come along and I'll give you all my heart

So untouchable
Incredible that I would make you mine

So impossible
Seems to be that I knew one day you'd be mine

You're my angel and you're my star
You're my light that is shinning in the night
I wanna touch you but you're so far
Just come along and I'll give you all my heart

You're my angel and you're my star
You're my light that is shinning in the night
I wanna touch you but you're so far
Just come along and I'll give you all my heart

You're my angel and you're my star
You're my light that is shinning in the night
I wanna touch you but you're so far
Just come along and I'll give you all my heart

So untouchable
Incredible that I will make you mine

So impossible
Seems to be that I knew one day you'd be mine

You're my angel and you're my star
You're my light that is shining in the night
I wanna touch you but you're so far
Just come along and I'll give you my heart

You're my angel and you're my star
You're my light that is shining in the night
I wanna touch you but you're so far
Just come along and I'll give you all my heart

So untouchable
Incredible that I will make you mine

So impossible
Seems to be that I know you're mine
