[Intro:]

Yeahh...

Come here baby..

Yeah Yeahh...

Why am i all dressed up?

We'll check this out

I've been doing a lot of thinking lately

And it all started the other day

When i went into town

You remember that baby?

Listen..

[Verse 1:]

It all started when i was at the store the other day

I saw this guy get on one knee

And i heard him say to his girl

"casa te conmigo"

My heart stopped right there

When I saw the look in her face

Baby i swear

She didn't even know what to say

She couldn't even breathe

But her tears of happiness gave the answer away

I witnessed the beginning of something so true

I wanna make you feel the same way baby too

Cause it's been so long that we've been together

And i wanna take that next step and make it last forever

I want you to close your eyes

While i reach into my pocket

I got a surprise for you

Cause i feel like it's that time

[Chorus:]

I feel that it's that time

For me and you to shine

With a token to show you how i feel

Girl won't you be mine?

Can you feel my heart skip a beat?

Just thinking about you being with me

To have you by my side
Everyday and night for eternity
Girl will you be my lady?

[Verse 2:]

Its been three years
To this very day
That it took for me to realize
What i have been waiting to say
For some reason the thought never crossed my mind
I figured we'd always be together
Til' the end of time
We used to talk about marriage every once in a while
Even thought of names for our first born child
Made plans of happiness and a family
Nothing would make me happier if this could be
So take my hand baby and look into my eyes
Im trying my hardest mi amor
Not to cry [not to cry]
I just want to let you know
Ive been thinking lately
And i have one question for you
Will you be ma lady?

Yeahh

[Chorus:]

Girl will you be mine? [be mine]
And spend all the rest of time
With our hand in mine
And mine in yours
Til' the day we die [til we did]
Id be the happiest man that ever lived
And anything ahead baby i would give to be by your side
Every day and night for eternity
Girl will you be my lady?

[Chorus:]

[Fade Ending]

Mi amor..te quiero mucho
