If I say Honey, the world to you

If I say Honey, the world to you Won't you try to call me honey

If I say Honey the world to you

If I say Honey the world to you Won't you try to call me honey

I always thought I knew I always thought I knew I was a part of you but now I know I always though I knew the cures of your love Everytime you call me honey And now the words you choose won't ever be enough Cause what they mean will only hurt me

I don't wanna hear it this time I don't wanna hear it this time I don't wanna be I don't wanna be No no, no no
