Err on the side of caution
They're taking in the new girls
Two faced, too poised to shed a tear
No memory to speak of
Past in the night we didn't hear
The fading breath of your love

We lose control of the moment
Another trend goes out of season
A new love, forever
Look the other way
You see through me
A new trend: indifference

You are a child of privilege
Your reputation leads you
All trace of light will disappear
You're falling into season
Their every word is insincere
There is no time for reason
We lose control of the moment
Another trend goes out of season
A new love, forever
Look the other way
You see through me
A new trend: indifference

Remember our childhood
It's not quite the same
A pale hue of new blood
They all know your name

We lose control of the moment
Another trend goes out of season
A new love, forever
Look the other way
You see through me
A new trend: indifference
