keep your head to the sky
keep your head to the sky
when i think i don't deserve it, i think about jesus and the fact that he was perfect and he thinks that i'm worth it i know i got a purpose so when i don't like what i see in the mirror i learn to look passed the surface believe me god heard this, cause he's worth came from my heart i was in pain, it was dark then came the sparkle light down the road to let me know that he would lighten up my load and as god get greater, later god only wants the best from me but the devil's a hater i can see his eyes through the smiles of fake friends you all think they with you they just keep f*cking with you at the end of the day who's will do you think will prevail? or will you live to tell miracle after miracle it comes true the spiritual individual within you

lord if you hear me, you know that i'm coming to you sincerely, i need you near me please hear me i'm sick and i need you to heal me i'm lost and looking for the real me i'm tired and weary haven't been able to see things clearly and even though i know you love me dearly i still get weary so where does that leave me? lost and alone i wanna call god but it's like i lost my phone every day is a struggle cause i juggle my problems need to let go and let god cause only he could solve them i'm tied of lying to myself thinking i could do it on my own when i get left alone when the devil sneaks in and creeps in knocks on the door light leading big sin and it's usually around the weekend then i get requisential jump off the deep and come on,

no matter what

all you need is faith in the lord's plan
