O.K...it's about time.we have to stand up,and walk proud...

(CHORUS)

We have to start knowing what to do,and how to show it...Lord Please!!

So what do you know?.....

People are thinking if it is,or it isn't:I'm second guessing.I'm thinking like i should,but the road keeps on stretching.It's getting more difficult.Day by Day i have a visual of how it was,or should i say how it has been.None of this had ever made sense until i saw the light,and made the dark less dense.If you bite the hand that feeds,you don't deserve to be fed.There's just too much greed.I just can't get it through my head.I do not read what's around me,and what happened.Man, they don't see what i found is overlapping.I fought,but never got the answers to my own problems.Imma stand strong ,and pray hard,so i can solve them...

(CHORUS)

When i talk about life,it throws me back in my shoes.Imma walk and gonna use them on the road that i choose...Hey,imma let them know why they should not interrupt.Hey,imma let them know why i just won't get enough.I'm here standing there.It isn't "give" then it's to share imma keep looking for peace.Hey,tell me,Is it there?

Well,i guess it isn't,so what do i do.I'll still do what i do if it really means to take a walk with the Lord.I have to take a risk.Days turn to years.I fear that this will twist...I'm back-playing of when it wasn't too much to interfere.There's a lot of stress,but now the road is cleared...

yeah, this is what happens when you think everything's good.....until you figure out..it's not...o.k...
