They're listening, there is no sound
Go round in circles, I cannot hear you
It's overcast, now lost the chance
Why make the effort? It's all so easy
It's up to you, who's behind you
Reel off a list of two million tours

Someone to blame, it's so closed off
Don't be so threatened, it's up to you now
Prioritize but let's make sense
Have you forgotten what brought you here?
Can't give it up, take while it's here
You did it last year, no need to do more

We eat what is left, all we deserve
Inclusion is power, a superpower
We eat what it left, all we deserve
Inclusion is power, superpower
Desensitized to everything
I know what I have and I'll keep on living
Can she join in, my daughter?
The enemy is not what you wanted

You think we're gone but you're so wrong
We are not hiding, planning the next move
The day has gone, now can you sleep
Just underscore and then repeat it

We eat what is left, all we deserve
Inclusion is power, a superpower
Is there some space within a song?
This is where I live, so move me

They're listening, there is no sound
Go round in circles, I cannot hear you
We eat what is left
(Tfel si tahw tae ew)
We eat what is left
(Tfel si tahw tae ew)
