How, do I put it to words
now one thing is for sure All that I have is yours
I come running to you nothing I wouldn't do I wouldn't never dishurt you, hurt you want you to know

(Chorus:)

Who's gonna be there standing by your side forever Who's gonna hold you when you can't keep it all together
Who's gonna promise that they'll never leave you all alone
I will, I will, I will

I, when the night feels too long when all your hope is gone I will help you to carry on Cause now, so much more I can see All you've given to me
Cause of you I am better, stronger
Don't you know

(Chorus)

For what I believe, I risk everything
And you know I believe in you
And you know deep inside, it's the right thing to do It's that chance that you take, it's the bond that won't break
It's the one thing that never ends

(Chorus 2x)
