I gave you my time
1/2 naked in the city
You were all just whine
Not feeling my pretty
Your mouth was dripping
I called you and you came
But heavy and unwilling
Was your cool just chilling
And I just wanted filling
Your heart was clogged
you were bogged down by your past
And fear I reached inside
Pulled out something glistening
And said: "here see what pussy produces"
It slow leaks from my tongue
It ran down your phone line
Now this line is done
I gave you my time
1/2 naked in the city
You were just all white
Not feeling my pretty
