all the world is a room and the room is painted blue you look at me and i look at you we need our song to pull us through but the melody is changing and the words all slip away and we cannot sing our good old song like we could in the good old days this leavin you sure ant easy i think of the summer nights we knew i remeber the way you used to please me but the time has come us now to go our seperate ways cause we cannot sing our good old song like we coud in the good old days don't you wanna have your chance don't you wanna try a new romance oh and i know you will when the time is right and you will dance on the highest hill in the night tonight i want to hold you close i wanna feel you near me one more time it's to bad it's sad but thats its how it goes and when your friends all come an ask you why your lover went away?

just say that we could not sing our good old song like we could in the good old days x2 oh we could not sing our good old song like we could in the good old days we couldn't make it no no we couldn't take it any more we could not sing our good old song

like we could in the good old days no no no oo no no no no no no

couldn't take the time couldn't make it right
