well I've got no place to hide no train to ride to take me where i won't need you yes i've brought you down so low now theres nothing i don't know about loosing you sweet lovin woman you've been gone for so long just when you needed me i did you wrong sweet lovin woman won't you please come on home after all i've put you through is there something i can do to make it all up to you such a fool to let you go

now theres nothing i don't know about loosing you

sweet lovin woman won't you please wont you come on home mm
sweet lovin woman won't you please come on home
