I'm groing tired of the big city lights Tired of the glamour, tired of the size I'm alway dreaming of roaming once more Back to my home on the old river shore

Days are dark and dreary everwhere I roam How I long for Mississippi and you Nothing seems to cheer me under heaven's door How I miss the Mississippi and you

Roaming the wide world over Always alone and blue, so blue I am sad and weary, longing to go home Yes, I miss the Mississippi and you

Mockingbirds are singing 'round the cabindoor While I dream of Mississippi and you And my memories are bringing happy days of yore I have spent in Mississippi with you

Roaming the wide world over Always alone and blue, so blue Longing for my homeland on that muddy watershore Yes, I miss the Mississippi and you The Mississippi and you
