She's a summer rain,
To a desert town.
She's one more day,
When times run out.
She's everything I'll ever need.
She's my remedy

She's a familiar place to a restless soul
When I've lost my way,
She brings me home.
Where would I be?
Without her here with me.
She's my remedy

So anytime I think that there's no cure,
All it takes is just one drop of her.
No, it doesn't matter what on earth is killing me,
She's my remedy.

She's like a thousand years,
To a broken heart.
She's my saving grace,
And she's my northern star.
The path that leads to all my dreams.
She's my remedy

So anytime I think that there's no cure,
All it takes is just one drop of her.
No it doesn't matter what on earth is killing me,
She's my remedy.

And if life gets her down,
And the road is hard to see,
I hope she knows,
She can always count on me.

Oh she's everything I'll ever need,
She's my remedy.

So anytime I think that there's no cure,
All it takes is just one drop of her.
No, it doesn't matter what on earth is killing me,

She's my remedy.
My remedy.
