From the great Atlantic ocean to the wide Pacific shore
The green old flowing mountains to the south down by the moor
She's mighty tall and handsome she's know quite well by all Regular combination on the Wabash Cannonball

Listen to the jingle, the rumble and the roar As she glides along the woodland o'er the hills and by the shore
Hear the mighty rush of the engine hear the lonesome hobo's call
As you travel across the country on the Wabash Cannonball

Oh the eastern states are dandy so the people always say
From New York to St. Louis and Chicago by the way To the hills of Minnesota where them rippling waters fall
No changes can be taken on the Wabash Cannonball

Here's to Daddy Claxton may his name forever stand In the hills of Tennessee and in the courts throughout the land
When his earthly race are over and them curtains round him fall
Would we take him home to Dixy on the Wabash
Cannonball

I went down from Birmingham one cold December day When she pulled into that station you could hear them people say There's a fellow from Tennessee, boys, he's long and he's tall
He came down from Alabamon the Wabash Cannonball

Oh listen to that jingle, the rumble and the roar

As she glides along the woodland o'er hills and by the shore
Hear the mighty rush of the engine hear the lonesome
hobo's call
You're travelling through the jungle on the Wabash
Cannonball
