Can you feel the heat on your back, see the flames around your feet can you hear the gnashing of teeth, the smel of your own defeat too long on the outside, loking in, you've become a worthless pawn what good are you to any of us, you've only done us harm get on your feet and face your fears show them what you've got get on you feet and face you fears there's a battle to be fought never forget what you're fighting for take pride in what you believe never forget what you're fighting for smash this world's teeth when will the blood be enough before you bother to lend a hand how many friends will be destroyed before you give them a chance no one ever said it was going to be easy, but what price have we paid lay down and die, well that's your choice, have fun in your burning grave remeber what He did for us, so we could be free remember when you turn your head and walk away.
