"Your Glory"

Visit "Your Glory" on MotoLyrics.com

You who are me beyond all that I am, deep behind those eyes of mine.
Stone by stone I have built
my way to your glory.

Blood and time, the essence of my life are the tools of this, my great work.
My fools journey.

Oh, luciferian soul, my tower.
And all these walls came down upon me.
Yet, I'd do it all again just to feast my eyes upon your glory.

I went from Cod to God.
In search of what I am.
Yet you were ever one.
We were ever one.
