Dog Eat Dog
"Communion"

Yesterday everything was fine
I read another dead chapter in the book of life
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah

The owls dance
With the snakes in the sand
No need to dig a musician
'Cause he's already dead
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah

Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue

Yesterday I turned my blood into wine
And my crown of thorns has never felt so right
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah

Another chance to forget myself
To harbor the damned to the promised land
And now my soul's save
Hallelujah

Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue

Yesterday everything was fine
I read another dead chapter in the book of life
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah

Yesterday I turned my blood into wine
And my crown of thorns has never felt so right
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah

Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue
Because I lied to you

In a world that's so untrue

Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue
Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue
