If you could wash away
All the sins you've made to this day
The last rites could be given to you
Because no one is innocent
And no one will be spared
Smile at the beauty of your poisonous possession as you're

Burning alive
And hanging from a cross so high
You look so pretty now
The sacrifice for all humanity
Smoke and ash
I'm choking on you

Levitate and reach for me
Restless spirit hovering
Smoldering burnt offerings of you
Because no one is innocent
And no one will be spared
Smile at the beauty of your poisonous possession as
you're

Burning alive
And hanging from a cross so high
You look so pretty now
The sacrifice for all humanity
Smoke and ash
I'm choking on you

The power of christ compels you
Demons be driven

This is the age of the golden dawn
And the rising bloody tide
Soulless pitch black witness
The return of the living dead
Oceans of blood all at once boil over
To carry the bodies away
Mass confusion into submission
The end of the world is today

Behind the black veil
Is the pale widow
Casting shadows on the only one she's ever loved
Armies of unholy ghosts
March in morbid rhythm
Chanting mantras of the dead under a bloody moon

Oceans of blood all at once boil over
To carry the bodies away
Mass confusion into submission
The end of the world is today as you're

Burning alive
The sacrifice for all humanity
Smoke and ash
I'm choking on you

The power of christ compels
The demons be driven
