Can't breathe, can't see, this stress
Built up inside of me
I'll take away the pressure of this world today

Break, I breakdown, break

I feel the pressure coming
Can't seem to turn around
Can't stop to save my life and
I'm gonna hit the ground

Break

I've never felt something like this
Can't believe that I could hate myself
For what it's worth and I wish it all away

When I can't see, and don't believe
When I can't feel inside of me
I'm breaking down, I fall apart
This stress built up
Why even try?

I breakdown, I breakdown
I breakdown, I breakdown
I break
Can't breathe, can't see
This stress built up inside of me

Break, I breakdown, break

When I can't see, and don't believe
When I can't feel inside of me
I'm breaking down, I fall apart
This stress built up
Why even try?

Can't you see my breaking down?
Can't you see my breaking down?
Can't you see my breaking down?
Can't you see my breakdown?
