What I see and what I need are two different things But I see what I need They become the same

C'mon sit back Just try to relax and feel a little bit empty inside There's still no hope at the end of the rope, it feels Like someone has left you behind

Am I standing still? Where do we go from here?

What I see and what I need are two different things But I see what I need They become the same

C'mon this time It seems to be fine it feels Like someone has left you behind The shit rolls out and you try to get out, you fear That nothing's left inside

Am I standing still? Where do we go from here?

Am I standing still? Where do we go? Where do we go? Where do we go? Where do we go from here?

What I see and what I need are two different things But I see what I need They become the same

Am I standing still? Where do we go from here?

Where do we go? Where do we go? Where do we go? Where do we go from here?

What I see and what I need are two different things
