You'll be alright once you drink tonight
You'll never need anything, trust me
And dont dry your eyes, just cry all night
Cause you're so wasted

Keep counting your blessings like they tell you too
Keep drinking, forgetting
The problems facing you

You'll be alright once you drink tonight
You'll never need anything, trust me
And dont dry your eyes, just cry all night
Cause you're so wasted

Your grieving, it's not helping the way you want it to Keep drinking, it's solving
Everything for you

You'll be alright once you drink tonight
You'll never need anything, trust me
And dont dry your eyes, just cry all night
Cause you're so wasted

You will find its not your only choice
You'll be fine once you're wasted

You'll be alright once you drink tonight
You'll never need anything, trust me
And dont dry your eyes, just cry all night
Cause you're so wasted

You will find its not your only choice
You'll be fine once you're wasted
