Difficult to ignore this
To make it seem OK
Just because you've enjoyed it
Doesn't mean your life won't change
All I ever wanted was some time to walk away
But when I try to look past this
You're stepping in the way

I don't care when you're not here
Make or break it doesn't take much time to see it
You fake it, you fake it, you fake this

Hard enough to accept it
You never take the blame
When the finger is pointed
You try to run away
And all I ever wanted was
Some time to walk away
But when I try to look past this
You're stepping in the way

I don't care when you're not here
Make or break it doesn't take much time to see it
You fake it, you fake it, you fake this

All I ever wanted
Was some time to walk away
When I try to look past this
You're stepping in the way

You're too much to handle
When you want to act this way
You tell me just to accept it
So I'll just walk away

I don't care when you're not here
Make or break it doesn't take much time to see it
You fake it, you fake it

You fake this
You fake this
You fake this

You fake this
